CHRISTMAS HOUSE PARTY FOR HOTEL GUESTS

CHRISTMAS EVE

Sunday 24th December

FROM 2PM

If you are not attending one of our cookery classes, you're invited to arrive at your leisure. The hotel is beautifully decorated and the huge open fireplace will warm you as you step into the lobby, as well as freshly roasted chestnuts and hot drinks...

3PM

Settle into your room then join us in the Drawing Room for a deliciously festive cream tea and meet our resident Falconer and her birds.

6.45PM

Meet the team with a Champagne reception as our local church choir perform traditional Christmas carols before dinner at 7.30pm - a three-course feast with wines to match, served in The Avenue restaurant or a private dining room for larger parties.

9.45PM

A cheese buffet and port will be available after dinner for all residents.

10.15PM

After dinner, we can provide transport to the magnificent Medieval Winchester Cathedral - with 15 centuries of English architecture it's a truly spectacular setting for Midnight Eucharist. Later, we'll welcome you back to the warmth of the hotel with mulled wine and mince pies before you tip-toe off to bed to dream of Christmas Day!

CHRISTMAS DAY

Monday 25th December

8AM - 9.30AM

Enjoy a full English breakfast with Bucks Fizz and linger over the thought of a Christmas Day where everything is taken care of for you!

Join us in the Drawing Room for a glass of Champagne and canapés prior to the main event of the day.

AFTERNOON

The afternoon of Christmas Day is definitely all about rest and relaxation, while partaking in the Lainston House Quiz. We also have a treasure trail to explore the grounds, visit our birds of prey in their aviaries or join us in front of the television for that time-honoured seasonal custom of The Queen's Speech with Christmas cake.

7.30PM

A light, yet plentiful buffet is served in The Avenue restaurant.

Join our bar team with a wonderful cocktail demonstration to end your festive evening.

Tuesday 26th December

8AM - 10AM

Start the day with a nourishing full English breakfast served in The Avenue restaurant.

DURING THE DAY

Don your hats and scarves for clay-pigeon shooting and archery* in the beautiful grounds complete with a mug of heart warming hot chocolate. Meet our resident Falconer for a chance to meet her birds of prey at 1pm or even make your way to SEASON, our cookery school to make Christmas treats from 3pm - 5pm.

If you'd like to take in a pantomime during your stay just let us know and we can arrange tickets, transport and even a packed lunch for the performance of Peter Pan at the Theatre Royal Winchester.*
